Conditional sentences

First conditional
We use the first conditional to talk about situations that are possible or likely to happen. If he finishes his homework, he'll go to the cinema.
Second conditional
We use the second conditional to talk about situations which are imaginary or unlikely to happen. If I met Leonardo DiCaprio, I'd ask him for his autograph.
Third conditional
We use the third conditional to talk about imaginary or hypothetical situations in the past. If she had got up earlier, she wouldn't have missed the train.
